

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO

KENNETH JORDAN'S RETIREMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Kenneth Jordan announced his retirement as Clerk of Court, effective August 1, 2017, after thirty-six years of dedicated service to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Ohio. Ken began his career as a Records/Intake Clerk. Through hard work and dedication, Ken's career advanced to Administrative Supervisor, Operations Manager, and eventually Deputy in Charge of the Cincinnati office. After a national search, Ken was elevated to Clerk of Court in January, 2007. For more than ten years, while working closely with three Chief Judges, Ken has honorably served the citizens and bankruptcy bar in the Southern District of Ohio. Among his many accomplishments as Clerk of Court, Ken navigated the court through a difficult and challenging season of budget reductions with integrity and sensitivity to the well-being and morale of the clerk's staff. Please join the court in extending best wishes to Ken as he begins the next chapter of his life.

FOR THE COURT

Jeffery P. Hopkins,

Chief Judge, United States Bankruptcy Court
